SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

A clean slate...a blank page...anew year...although our lives are continuous, and what we sow one day we will reap another, we tend to think of a new year as the beginning of new things. "This year things (life) are going to be different. I'm going to be a better person, a better friend, a better disciple, a better spouse, parent or child. I'm going to make time for important things, discover new talents or start using the old talents!" Whatever it is in your life that needs to be re-evaluated, "re-think", or reduced, let's make sure our relationship with Jesus Christ is priority. Without Him everything else just doesn't matter. Remember, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you."
